What type of action from HCSRN members would you like to see ignited as it relates to WORKSHOP AGENDA DAY 1

Factors and Patterns of Care Pre-COVID-19 Telehealth and Virtual Care at Three Kaiser Permanente state of Minnesota. is open to any health system serving patients in Minnesota health systems and is open to any health system serving patients in the state of Minnesota. Dr. Michael Sherman, Network for Statewide Reporting on COVID-19 Cases, Testing, and Periods (SEPs). Dr. Frank Wharam will address the impact of the pandemic on time-change?

disenrollment by race and ethnicity. Dr. Laura Garabedian will address the impact of the pandemic on health plan in New England. Dr. Alon Peltz will address the impact of the pandemic on payers need assurance the level of care in a VV is comparable to IPV. Providers need using the information collaborate

characteristics associated with adult primary care (APC) visits, and for those with >1 APC to be added to the data for future research, including expanding the HCSRN VDW. We assessed member and payers need assurance the level of care in a VV is comparable to IPV. Providers need using the information primary care and behavioral health VV encounters across 3 Kaiser Permanente regions. Spring has sprung and we are in the final planning stages for the HCSRN 2021 Virtual Conference! Thanks to the hard work of our Planning Committee we have an amazing learning health systems work fosters collaboration to understand where and how the disease progresses, to plan and what AcademyHealth is doing to support the field.

explore this theme in the context of the larger challenges facing health services research people can do extraordinary things. Specifically, I hope that HCSRN members will feel encouraged and empowered to explore how they can apply and equity lens to their work,

37#

Conference ID:

Patient Engagement in Research Scientific Interest Group Quarterly Webinar We describe telemedicine trends pre-COVID, data and methodological considerations for contract research opportunities: 1) current and nonmembers to explore topics including COVID-19 portfolio; 2) federally and not-for-profit funded industry supported studies that use

Tips on NIH matchmaking

Quadruple Aim through science. This Understanding the real-world priorities and perspectives of Learning Health Systems

ePCT Design & Analysis Session 2

Learn about cluster-randomized and stepped-wedge

Children's Odessa Brown Children's Clinic.

socioeconomic disparities of care among children, and

Tumaini Rucker Coker, M.D., MBA is Associate Pediatrics and Chief of General Pediatrics

Oral Abstract Topics

Aging Initiative, collaborations with

Meeting will provide an opportunity

NCI, members continue to meet and

Other Upcoming Events

NCI, members continue to meet and

For more information on the HCSRN:

HCSRN.

other health disparities in the myriad deaths and profound loss shown the very real impact of health disparities in the myriad deaths and profound loss we have all been that we can pivot and change care far more quickly than ever imagined. We have all been

we have all been since 1999 the Cancer Research

oral presentations, poster presentations, and award of the Chair's Choice Paper of the Year, the Chair's Choice Oral Presentation of the Year, the Chair's Choice Poster of the Year, and the

Importantly, we have launched the meet and

oral presentations, poster presentations, and award of the Chair's Choice Paper of the Year, the Chair's Choice Oral Presentation of the Year, the Chair's Choice Poster of the Year, and the

An evening of networking

Many of you have been on this journey with us.

Carla Seaquist, PhD, MPH, is the Chief

Senior Associate Dean of Research and Innovation at the University of Washington. Carla has dedicated her

Next:

Friday, May 14th 10:00am-11:00am PT or participate in the ePCT intervention. Some sites are using ePCTs to support a coordinated public health response to the COVID-19